AMENDMENT TO THE AGREEMENT BETWEEN
Wordwall
AND
DAVIS JOINT UNIFIED SCHOOL DISTRICT
(Venue and Data Privacy Law)

This Contract Amendment executed by Wordwall hereinafter referred to as "Vendor", and Davis Joint Unified School District, hereinafter referred to as "District", which document shall amend the Agreement between the Vendor and District ("Service Agreement") as follows:

1. The Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of California and all disputes arising out or relating to the Agreement shall be heard in Superior Court in Yolo County, California.

2. The parties agree to adopt the California Student Data Privacy Agreement ("CSDPA"), the contents of which are incorporated herein by reference. In the event there is a conflict between the CSDPA and the Service Agreement, the CSDPA shall apply and take precedence.

Subject to the terms and conditions set forth in this Amendment, the above referenced Agreement between the parties is hereby ratified and confirmed.

Terms of use

1. Your relationship with Wordwall

1.1 Your use of the Wordwall website (the "Website") and any Wordwall products, channels, software, data feeds and services, provided to you on or from or through the Website by Wordwall (collectively the "Service") is subject to the terms of a legal agreement between you and Wordwall. "Wordwall" means Visual Education Ltd., who can be contacted by mail at Visual Education Ltd, Lytchett House, 13 Freeland Park, Wareham Road, Poole, Dorset, BH16 6FA, United Kingdom.

1.2 The Terms form a legally binding agreement between you and Wordwall in relation to your use of the Service. It is important that you take the time to read them carefully.

1.3 The Terms apply to all users of the Service, including users who are also contributors of Content, on the Service. "Content" includes the text, software, scripts, graphics, photos, sounds, music, videos, audiovisual combinations, interactive features and other materials you may view on, access through or contribute to the Service.

2. Accepting the Terms

2.1 In order to use the Service, you must firstly agree to the Terms. You may not use the Service if you do not accept the Terms.

2.2 You can accept the Terms by simply using the Service. You understand and agree that Wordwall will treat your use of the Service as acceptance of the Terms from that point onwards.

2.3 You may not use the Service and may not accept the Terms if (a) you are not of legal age to form a binding contract with Wordwall, or (b) you are a person who is either barred or otherwise legally prohibited from receiving or using the Service under the laws of the country in which you are resident or from which you access or use the Service.

3. Changes to the Terms

Wordwall reserves the right to make changes the Terms from time to time, for example to address changes to the law or regulatory changes or changes to functionality offered through the Service. A modified version of the Terms (the "Modified Terms") will be posted on the Wordwall site or made available within the Service (for any modified additional terms). If you do not agree to the Modified Terms you must stop using the Service. Your continued use of the Service after the date the Modified Terms are posted will constitute your acceptance of the Modified Terms.

4. Wordwall accounts

4.1 In order to access some features of the Website or other elements of the Service, you will have to create a Wordwall account. When creating your account, you must provide accurate and complete information. It is important that you must keep your Wordwall account password secure and confidential.

4.2 You must notify Wordwall immediately of any breach of security or unauthorised use of your Wordwall account that you become aware of.

4.3 You agree that you will be solely responsible (to Wordwall, and to others) for all activity that occurs under your Wordwall account.

4.4 Wordwall may from time-to-time contact you using the email address, school address and telephone numbers supplied by you regarding their products and those of third parties, if you have expressly consented to do so or you have provided implied consent (e.g. by contacting us). You may contact us via help@wordwall.net if you do not wish to receive such communications.

5. General restrictions on use

5.1 Wordwall hereby grants you permission to access and use the Service, subject to the following express conditions, and you agree that your failure to adhere to any of these conditions shall constitute a breach of these Terms on your part:

A. you agree not to distribute any part of or parts of the Website or the Service, including but not limited to any Content, in any medium without Wordwall's prior written authorisation, unless Wordwall makes available the means for such distribution through functionality offered by the Service;

B. you agree not to alter or modify any part of the Website or any of the Service;

C. you agree not to access Content through any technology or means other than the Wordwall activity pages or such other means as Wordwall may explicitly designate for this purpose;

D. you agree not to (or attempt to) circumvent, disable or otherwise interfere with any security related features of the Service or features that (i) prevent or restrict use or copying of Content or (ii) enforce limitations on use of the Service or the content accessible via the Service;

E. you agree not to use the Service for any of the following commercial uses unless you obtain Wordwall's prior written approval:

i. the sale of access to the Service

ii. the sale of advertising, sponsorships or promotions placed on or within the Service, or Content;

iii. the sale of advertising, sponsorships or promotions on any page of an ad-enabled blog or website containing Content delivered via the Service unless other material not obtained from Wordwall appears on the same page and is of sufficient value to be the basis for such sales

F. prohibited commercial uses shall not include (i) uploading educational content to the Wordwall site; (ii) using educational content contained within the Wordwall site, within the course of a lesson

G. if you use the Wordwall Player on your website may not modify, build upon or block any portion or functionality of the Wordwall Player including but not limited to links back to the Website;

H. you agree not to use or launch any automated system (including, without limitation, any robot, spider or offline reader) that accesses the Service in a manner that sends more request messages to the Wordwall servers in a given period of time than a human can reasonably produce in the same period by using a publicly available, standard (i.e. not modified) web browser;

I. you agree not to collect or harvest any personal data of any user of the Website or any Service (and agree that this shall be deemed to include Wordwall account names);

J. you agree not to use the Website or the Services (including the comments and email features in the Website) for the solicitation of business in the course of trade or in connection with a commercial enterprise;

K. you agree not to solicit, for commercial purposes, any users of the Website with respect to their Content; and

L. you agree not to access Content or any reason other than your personal, non-commercial use solely as intended through and permitted by the normal functionality of the Service.

M. You shall not copy, reproduce, distribute, transmit, broadcast, display, sell, license, or otherwise exploit any Content for any other purposes without the prior written consent of Wordwall or the respective licensors of the Content.

5.3 Wordwall grants the operators of public search engines permission to use spiders to copy materials from the site for the sole purpose of creating publicly available searchable indices of the materials, but not caches or archives of such materials. Wordwall reserves the right to revoke these exceptions either generally or in specific cases.

5.4 Wordwall is constantly innovating in order to provide the best possible experience for its users. You acknowledge and agree that the form and nature of the Service which Wordwall provides may change from time to time without prior notice to you.

5.5 As part of this continuing innovation, you acknowledge and agree that Wordwall may stop (permanently or temporarily) providing the Service (or any features within the Service) to you or to users generally at Wordwall's sole discretion, without prior notice to you. You may stop using the Service at any time. You do not need to specifically inform Wordwall when you stop using the Service.

5.6 You agree that you are solely responsible for (and that Wordwall has no responsibility to you or to any third party for) any breach of your obligations under the Terms and for the consequences (including any loss or damage which Wordwall may suffer) of any such breach.

6. Copyright policy

6.1 Wordwall respects the copyright of third parties. It will remove any content which is identified as belonging to a third party – you can do this by contacting us via email.

6.2 As part of Wordwall's copyright policy, Wordwall will terminate user access to the /Service if a user has been determined to be a repeat infringer. A repeat infringer is a user who has been notified of infringing activity more than twice.

7. Content

7.1 As a Wordwall account holder you may submit Content. You understand that whether or not Content is published, Wordwall does not guarantee any confidentiality with respect to Content.

7.2 You retain all of your ownership rights in your Content, but you are required to grant limited licence rights to Wordwall and other users of the Service. These are described in paragraph 8 of these Terms (Rights you licence).

7.3 You understand and agree that you are solely responsible for your own Content and the consequences of posting or publishing it. Wordwall does not endorse any Content or any opinion, recommendation, or advice expressed therein, and Wordwall expressly disclaims any and all liability in connection with Content.

7.4 You represent and warrant that you have (and will continue to have during your use of the Service) all necessary licenses, rights, consents, and permissions which are required to enable Wordwall to use your Content for the purposes of the provision of the Service by Wordwall, and otherwise to use your Content in the manner contemplated by the Service and these Terms.

7.6 You agree that you will not post or upload any Content which contains material which it is unlawful for you to possess in the country in which you are resident, or which it would be unlawful for Wordwall to use or possess in connection with the provision of the Service.

7.7 You agree that Content you submit to the Service will not contain any third party copyright material, or material that is subject to other third party proprietary rights (including rights of privacy or rights of publicity), unless you have a formal licence or permission from the rightful owner, or are otherwise legally entitled, to post the material in question and to grant Wordwall the licence referred to in paragraph 8.1 below.

7.8 On becoming aware of any potential violation of these Terms, Wordwall reserves the right (but shall have no obligation) to decide whether Content complies with the content requirements set out in these Terms and may remove such Content and/or terminate a User's access for uploading Content which is in violation of these Terms at any time, without prior notice and at its sole discretion.

7.9 You further understand and acknowledge that in using the Service, you may be exposed to Content that is factually inaccurate, offensive, indecent, or otherwise objectionable to you. You agree to waive, and hereby do waive, any legal or equitable rights or remedies you have or may have against Wordwall with respect to any such Content.

8. Rights you licence

8.1 When you upload or post Content to Wordwall, you grant:

A. to Wordwall, a worldwide, non-exclusive, royalty-free, transferable licence (with right to sub-licence) to use, reproduce, distribute, prepare derivative works of, display, and perform that Content in connection with the provision of the Service and otherwise in connection with the provision of the Service and Wordwall's business, including without limitation for promoting and redistributing part or all of the Service (and derivative works thereof) in any media formats and through any media channels;

B. to each user of the Service, a worldwide, non-exclusive, royalty-free licence to access your Content through the Service, and to use, reproduce, distribute, prepare derivative works of, display and perform such Content to the extent permitted by the functionality of the Service and under these Terms.

8.2 The above licenses granted by you in Content terminate when you remove or delete your Content from the Website. The above licenses granted by you in textual comments you submit as Content are perpetual and irrevocable, but are otherwise without prejudice to your ownerships rights, which are retained by you as set out in paragraph 7.2 above.

9. Wordwall content on the Website

9.1 With the exception of Content submitted to the Service by you, all other Content on the Service is either owned by or licensed to Wordwall, and is subject to copyright, trade mark rights, and other intellectual property rights of Wordwall or Wordwall's licensors. Any third party trade or service marks present on Content not uploaded or posted by you are trade or service marks of their respective owners. Such Content may not be downloaded, copied, reproduced, distributed, transmitted, broadcast, displayed, sold, licensed, or otherwise exploited for any other purpose whatsoever without the prior written consent of Wordwall or, where applicable, Wordwall's licensors. Wordwall and its licensors reserve all rights not expressly granted in and to their Content.

10. Links from Wordwall

10.1 The Service may include hyperlinks to other web sites that are not owned or controlled by Wordwall. Wordwall has no control over, and assumes no responsibility for, the content, privacy policies, or practices of any third party websites.

10.2 You acknowledge and agree that Wordwall is not responsible for the availability of any such external sites or resources, and does not endorse any advertising, products or other materials on or available from such web sites or resources.

10.3 You acknowledge and agree that Wordwall is not liable for any loss or damage which may be incurred by you as a result of the availability of those external sites or resources, or as a result of any reliance placed by you on the completeness, accuracy or existence of any advertising, products or other materials on, or available from, such web sites or resources.

10.4 Wordwall encourages you to be aware when you leave the Service and to read the terms and conditions and privacy policy of each other website that you visit.

11. Ending your relationship with Wordwall

11.1 The Terms will continue to apply until terminated by either you or Wordwall as set out below.

11.2 If you want to terminate your legal agreement with Wordwall, you may do so by (a) notifying Wordwall at any time and (b) closing your Wordwall account. Your notice should be sent, in writing, to Wordwall's address which is set out at the beginning of these Terms.

11.3 Wordwall may at any time terminate its legal agreement with you if:

A. you have breached any provision of the Terms (or have acted in manner which clearly shows that you do not intend to, or are unable to comply with the provisions of the Terms); or

B. Wordwall is required to do so by law (for example, where the provision of the Service to you is, or becomes, unlawful); or 11.4 Wordwall may terminate its legal agreement with you if:

A. Wordwall is transitioning to no longer providing the Service to users in the country in which you are resident or from which you use the Service; or

B. the provision of the Service to you by Wordwall is, in Wordwall's opinion, no longer commercially viable and in the case of each of A and B of this clause 11.4 shall, where possible, give reasonable notice of such termination.

11.5 When these Terms come to an end, all of the legal rights, obligations and liabilities that you and Wordwall have benefited from, been subject to (or which have accrued over time whilst the Terms have been in force) or which are expressed to continue indefinitely, shall be unaffected by this cessation, and the provisions of paragraph 14.6 shall continue to apply to such rights, obligations and liabilities indefinitely.

12. Exclusion of Warranties

12.1 Nothing in the Terms shall affect any statutory rights that you are always entitled to as a consumer and that you cannot contractually agree to alter or waive.

12.2 The Service is provided "as is" and Wordwall makes no warranty or representation to you with respect to them.

12.3 In particular Wordwall does not represent or warrant to you that:

- A. your use of the Service will meet your requirements,
- B. your use of the Service will be uninterrupted, timely, secure or free from error,
- C. any information obtained by you as a result of your use of the Service will be accurate or reliable, and
- D. that defects in the operation or functionality of any software provided to you as part of the Service will be corrected.

12.4 No conditions, warranties or other terms (including any implied terms as to satisfactory quality, fitness for purpose or conformance with description) apply to the Service except to the extent that they are expressly set out in the Terms.

13. Limitation of Liability

13.1 Nothing in these Terms shall exclude or limit Wordwall's liability for losses which may not be lawfully excluded or limited by applicable law.

13.2 Subject to the overall provision in paragraph 13.1 above Wordwall shall not be liable to you for:

- A. any indirect or consequential losses which may be incurred by you. This shall include; (i) any loss of profit (whether incurred directly or indirectly); (ii) any loss of goodwill or business reputation; (iii) any loss of opportunity; or (iv) any loss of data suffered by you;
- B. any loss or damage which may be incurred by you as a result of:
  - i. any reliance placed by you on the completeness, accuracy or existence of any advertising, or as a result of any relationship or transaction between you and any advertiser or sponsor whose advertising appears on the Service;

ii. any changes which Wordwall may make to the Service, or for any permanent or temporary cessation in the provision of the Service (or any features within the Service);

iii. the deletion of, corruption of, or failure to store, any Content and other communications data maintained or transmitted by or through your use of the Service;

iv. your failure to provide Wordwall with accurate account information;

v. your failure to keep your password or Wordwall account details secure and confidential.

13.3 The limitations on Wordwall's liability to you in paragraph 13.2 above shall apply whether or not Wordwall has been advised of or should have been aware of the possibility of any such losses arising.

14. General legal terms

14.1 The Terms constitute the whole legal agreement between you and Wordwall and govern your use of the Service and completely replace any prior agreements between you and Wordwall in relation to the Service. All other terms of service that Google Inc. and any of its subsidiaries may have in place from time to time are expressly excluded from the Terms.

14.2 You agree that Wordwall may provide you with notices, including those regarding changes to the Terms, by email, regular mail, or postings on the Service.

14.3 You agree that if Wordwall does not exercise or enforce any legal right or remedy which is contained in the Terms (or which Wordwall has the benefit of under any applicable law), this will not be taken to be a formal waiver of Wordwall's rights and that those rights or remedies will still be available to Wordwall.

14.4 If any court of law, having the jurisdiction to decide on this matter, rules that any provision of these Terms is invalid, then that provision will be removed from the Terms without affecting the rest of the Terms. The remaining provisions of the Terms will continue to be valid and enforceable.

14.5 No other person or company shall be a third party beneficiary of the Terms.

14.6 The Terms, and your relationship with Wordwall under the Terms, shall be governed by English law. You and Wordwall agree to submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of England & Wales to resolve any legal matter arising from the Terms. Notwithstanding this, you agree that Wordwall shall still be allowed to apply for injunctive remedies (or other equivalent types of urgent legal remedy) in any jurisdiction.

15. GDPR

Wordwall complies with the terms of General Data Protection Regulation 2018. Our Privacy and Data Notice shall form part of these terms.

Privacy and data notice

Providing a service for teachers and students with digital technology at the heart of everything we do, online safety for our customers is paramount, especially since children also use our product. Visual Education Ltd, makers of Wordwall.net, comply with the General Data Protection Regulation.

Who owns your data?

When you use the Wordwall.net site, you own and control your data, including data relating to your students. We do not ask students directly for their data, but users may do so, for example, through the setting of assignments and the creation of activity leaderboards. You should ask for permission before you collect this data and delete it when appropriate to do so.

We licence Wordwall to both schools and individual teachers. We do not licence Wordwall to students and require credit card details and/or a school purchase order to subscribe to our service.

We consider the data controller and owner to be the individual user (e.g. a teacher) rather than any corporate body that might employ the individual (e.g. a school). Therefore we will not grant access to data made on behalf of individuals, unless the corporate body have contracted with us for the provision of the service (e.g. under a whole-school site subscription service).

Your data

Wordwall.net provides a personalised experience for teachers to use our site.

We recommend that you do not disclose your password to anyone to keep your data secure. We will never ask you for your password when contacting you by phone or email.

Wordwall.net automatically logs users out after one hour of inactivity if they are logged in as an individual user. When you have finished using Wordwall.net, we recommend that you log out. This is to ensure that others cannot access your account information if you share a computer with someone else or are using a computer in a public place such as a library.

Data Backup

Wordwall.net's backup procedure allows for storage of up to 35 days.

Visual Education collects the following data and stores it securely:

Teacher users

Wordwall.net enables teachers to create and set up their own account. This allows teachers to create their own resources, share them with other teachers (giving us a licence to use the resource) and assign them to students. We ask teacher users for their title, first name, last name, email address, username and password, with the collection of their role and subject interests as optional. We may also collect financial information, including credit card information, for the processing of subscriptions.

At all times, within the definition of the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR), the user (teacher or school) retain the status of Data Controller for the data stored on our cloud service. The data obtained from the students always remains in the ownership of the school, or that of the individual teacher users.

Students

We do not provide user accounts to students or ask them to provide us with their contact details.

Wordwall.net's assignment and leaderboard tools, allow the collection of a student data:

- users may set assignments that collect the student's name and response to questions
- user-created activities may include leaderboards which collect the student's name and score

Users should ensure that in collecting such information they have obtained permission from whoever is completing the assignment or leaderboard-based activity (and if necessary, parental permission).

Data Collection and Use

On our website, we request personal information in the following areas:

Mailing List – Your email address in order to send you relevant news and updates. This requires an additional and explicit opt-in.

Support – Your title, first name, last name, email address, school name, postcode, country and telephone number. We use this information to link your question to your user account so that we can contact you with a relevant and timely response.

User accounts - Your title, first name, last name, email address, school name, postcode, country and telephone number. We also require credit card details for paid subscriptions.

Updating Your Information

You can update or remove your account information by emailing us at help@wordwall.net

Data kept for marketing purposes can be changed at any time by clicking on the unsubscribe link on any email from us.

How long does Wordwall.net keep data?

Why We Delete Data

Wordwall.net stores data for its users. To ensure that Wordwall.net does not hold user information in perpetuity, it has set criteria for the deletion of unused data.

User data

Wordwall.net holds data for user accounts. If these accounts are left inactive for seven years they will be deleted, however resources shared with the Wordwall community may be retained, in accordance with our terms.

Results data

Results data for students may be deleted at any time by users (who remains the data controller for this information). The user will be deleted in accordance with the provision above, if held in a dormant account.

Financial & credit card data

We collect information from users for accounting purposes, which will be retained for seven years (as required by VAT regulations). Credit card information is held securely by our merchant provider (Stripe) and is only retained during a subscription period.

Usage Statistics

Usage statistics of Wordwall.net will be kept in perpetuity. No personal/user level information can be extracted from this data.

Sharing Data

Wordwall.net will not share data with third parties unless explicit instruction is given by the user in question, for example, to integrate with a VLE provider or the purposes of SSO, and we will never sell user information or data collected from our website.

Security and Protection of Your Information

All remote access to Wordwall.net is conducted over HTTPS, an encrypted web link secured using Secure Sockets Layer (SSL). This is the same method used by banks and commercial entities to secure sensitive data from interception. We encrypt user data.

External Data Storage

Wordwall.net stores data on our secure database servers, operated by Microsoft (Azure). Physical access to our servers is strictly limited. Access to the servers in the data centre requires proof of identify (photo ID) and is controlled by magnetic card readers and keys to both the cages and individual cabinets that surround the server racks, all of which are monitored by the data centre security staff using CCTV. Remote access to the data is limited to the tools needed by the IT support staff to maintain and operate the servers and is restricted to known users (identified by usernames and secure keys) connecting from known locations (IP addresses).

Access to Information

The General Data Protection Regulation gives you the right to access information held about you. We will endeavour to make all possible data available to you immediately via your “my account” settings (by clicking on your user profile when logged in, in the top right of your web browser). You may also file a subject access request. Your right of access can be exercised in accordance with the regulations. We will endeavour to reply to all subject access requests within one month.

Visual Education Ltd. Employees

To ensure that the user receives the best customer care, Visual Education Ltd.’s staff have access to user data (dependent upon their role). Staff access is controlled and only granted on a need-to-know basis.

Wordwall.net and Cookies

A cookie (also called a HTTP cookie, web cookie or browser cookie) is a small piece of data sent from a website and stored in a user’s web browser while the user is browsing that website, which is subsequently sent back to the same website by the browser.

To function, a cookie asks permission to be placed on your computer’s hard drive. Once you agree, the file is added and will subsequently recognise you when you return to a particular site and/or help Wordwall.net analyse its web traffic.

How Wordwall.net Uses Cookies

Wordwall.net uses cookies to provide you with the best possible experience on our website and to identify critical details such as account, user and curriculum identification on our product. This helps us analyse data about webpage traffic and improve our service in order to tailor it to customer needs. We use this information for statistical analysis purposes only in anonymised form, to influence our development plans.

Overall, cookies help us provide you with a better product, by enabling us to monitor which pages you find useful and which you do not. A cookie in no way gives us access to your computer or any information about you, other than the data you choose to share with us.

Contact Us

Wordwall.net is operated by Visual Education Ltd. (registered in England & Wales, 05900439). If you have questions about how we use your data, our compliance with GDPR or wish to file a subject access request, you can do so via email (help@wordwall.net) or post. Our postal address is: Visual Education Ltd, Lytchett House, 13 Freeland Park, Wareham Road, Poole, Dorset, BH16 6FA, United Kingdom.
