The above material meets the stated goals and objectives for the course ADVANCED AUTOMOTIVE TECHNOLOGY, grade level(s) 11-12, and complies with the social requirements as stated in the State Department of Education publication, Standards for Evaluating Instructional Materials for Social Content, 2000, which includes the following: Special Circumstances; Male and Female Roles; Ethnic and Cultural Groups; Older Persons and the Aging Process; People with Disabilities; Entrepreneur and Labor; Religion; Ecology and the Environment; Dangerous Substances; Thrift; Fire Prevention, and Humane Treatment of Animals and People; Declaration of Independence and Constitution of the United States; Brand Names and Corporate Logos; Diet and Exercise.

1. If the text is to be used in a course that already exists, how does it supplement or replace the present text?

The new text will replace a classroom set of 8 texts called Modern Automotive Technology (copyright 2000). There are only 8 copies of Modern Automotive Technology, not even enough for a classroom set. The new text will have enough copies for general library distribution.

2. If the text is to be used in a new course, specifically what aspects of the course and what instructional objectives does it help to achieve? Does the text compliment other texts used in the course?
