The above material meets the stated goals and objectives for the course English 9, grade level(s) 9, and complies with the social requirements as stated in the State Department of Education publication, Standards for Evaluating Instructional Materials for Social Content, 2000, which includes the following: Special Circumstances; Male and Female Roles; Ethnic and Cultural Groups; Older Persons and the Aging Process; People with Disabilities; Entrepreneur and Labor; Religion; Ecology and the Environment; Dangerous Substances; Thrift; Fire Prevention, and Humane Treatment of Animals and People; Declaration of Independence and Constitution of the United States; Brand Names and Corporate Logos: Diet and Exercise.

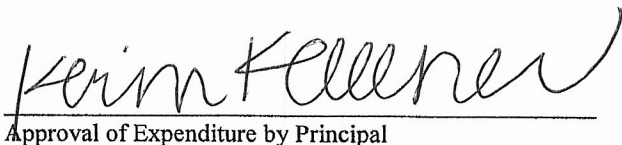

1. If the text is to be used in a course that already exists, how does it supplement or replace the present text?

The text replaces The Outsiders in an effort to provide a text that is more complex and is grade level reading appropriate (bridging 8th and 9th grade, it will be taught at the beginning of 9th grade). It will be the only text that focuses on a Latino/a and Chicano/a experience which may appeal to many of our students. Lastly the text has more poetic features, and as this course does not currently have a stand-alone poetry unit, this will facilitate familiarization with that genre during their 9th grade year.

2. If the text is to be used in a new course, specifically what aspects of the course and what instructional objectives does it help to achieve? Does the text compliment other texts used in the course?
