BACKGROUND INFORMATION

American Voices is a college prep survey course that helps students understand and interpret the American experience in all its diversity. Students read and analyze classic and contemporary American works in all genres: fiction, non-fiction, poetry, and drama. Students respond to works by writing in a wide variety of ways, including literary analysis, research, argumentative, and narrative essays. Students also work to develop and improve their vocabulary, grammar mastery, and oral communication skills.

Context for Course:

- The course is inspired and directed by DJUSD goals, objectives, and strategies.
- The course is aligned with UC Academic Standards (Area B English)

History of Course Development:

This course replaces the American Literature course now offered to 11th graders. Teachers collaborated over a two-year period to more closely align course content with new California standards, to deepen connections with U.S. history courses, to increase the diversity of voices and genres taught, and to pilot new works.

COURSE GOALS AND/OR MAJOR STUDENT OUTCOMES

Students will demonstrate college-ready skills in reading, writing, speaking, and listening. Students will demonstrate an understanding and appreciation of diverse American voices in a wide variety of genres. Students will respond to the American voices studied with their own voice: writing essays and narratives; researching related topics, and delivering speeches and presentations.

COURSE OBJECTIVES

Students will meet the English-Language Arts Content Standards for California Public Schools in:

- Word analysis, fluency, and systematic vocabulary development
- Reading comprehension (with a focus on informational materials)
- Literary response and analysis

- Writing strategies
- Writing applications (including narratives, responses to literature, reflective compositions, and historical investigation reports)
- Written and oral English language conventions
- Listening and speaking strategies
- Speaking applications (including delivering reflective presentations, oral reports on historical investigations, oral responses to literature, multimedia presentations, and recitations of studied works)

COURSE OUTLINE

Unit One: AMERICAN INDIVIDUALISM

Major work:

Jon Krakauer: *Into the Wild

Supplemental texts:

Arthur Miller: *The Crucible

Ralph Waldo Emerson: "Self Reliance" (363)

Standards focus:

1.0 Writing Strategies: Students write coherent and focused texts that convey a well-defined perspective and tightly reasoned argument. The writing demonstrates students' awareness of the audience and purpose and progression through the stages of the writing process.

Summative assessment: argumentative essay

Unit Two: AMERICAN VALUES

Major works:

Mark Twain: *The Adventures of Huckleberry Finn

Julius Lester: *To Be a Slave

Supplemental texts:

Thomas Jefferson, The Declaration of Independence (270)

Martin Luther King: "I Have a Dream" speech

Standards focus:

- 2.1 Analyze both the features and the rhetorical devices of different types of public documents (e.g., policy statements, speeches, debates, platforms) and the way in which authors use those features and devices.
 2.2 Analyze the way in which clarity of meaning is affected by the patterns of organization, hierarchical structures, repetition of the main ideas, syntax, and word choice in the text.
 2.4 Make warranted and reasonable assertions about the author's arguments by using elements of the text to defend and clarify interpretations. 2.5 Analyze an author's implicit and explicit philosophical assumptions and beliefs about a subject.
 3.2 Analyze the way in which the theme or meaning of a selection represents a view or comment on life, using textual evidence to support the claim. 3.3 Analyze the ways in which irony, tone, mood, the author's style, and the "sound" of language achieve specific rhetorical or aesthetic purposes or both.

Summative assessment: Literary analysis essay

Unit Three: RHETORIC OF PROTEST

Speeches:

Elizabeth Cody Stanton, "Declaration of Sentiments"

Red Jacket, "Defense of Native American Religion"

Michelle Alexander, "The Future of Race in America" (TED Talk)

Patrick Henry, "Speech in the Virginia Convention" (262)

Standards focus:

- 1.4 Use rhetorical questions, parallel structure, concrete images, figurative language, characterization, irony, and dialogue to achieve clarity, force, and aesthetic effect.
- 1.5 Distinguish between and use various forms of classical and contemporary logical arguments, including:
 a. Inductive and deductive reasoning b. Syllogisms and analogies
- 1.6 Use logical, ethical, and emotional appeals that enhance a specific tone and purpose.
- 1.7 Use appropriate rehearsal strategies to pay attention to performance details, achieve command of the text, and create skillful artistic staging.
- 1.8 Use effective and interesting language, including: a. Informal expressions for effect b. Standard American English for clarity c. Technical language for specificity

Summative assessment: Persuasive speech

Unit Four: A SINGULAR VOICE
