(Agendizing the AIM Discussion)

Superintendent Bowes indicated two Board members had requested moving the AIM identification, qualification and placement procedures discussion from April 6 to February 16. Staff is currently working on the data and gathering information to be fully prepared to address the matter on April 6. Staff would need direction from the Board if the report is scheduled at a different time.

President Archer briefly spoke to the scheduled timeline, and moved to keep staff's recommended timeline for the AIM presentation. Member Adams seconded the motion.

Member Sunder, referencing the Nov 2015 Board action regarding the AIM program, believed the AIM presentation should be moved to February 16, and presented other info that would support moving the discussion. Following a brief discussion by the Board, Member Sunder made an alternate motion to move the AIM discussion up to February 16 meeting to look at the HOPE scale and other alternatives for identification based on last year's data.

(Extending the Meeting Beyond 11:00 p.m.)

The Board and staff continued their dialogue related to past Board presentations/discussions about the AIM program. During the discussion President Archer, noting the time was approaching 11:00 p.m., moved to extend the meeting 15 minutes. Member Sunder seconded the motion.
