RESOLUTION NO. 7-19
HISPANIC HERITAGE MONTH
September 15, 2018 – October 15, 2018

WHEREAS, the State of California is home for more than two million Hispanic students from kindergarten through grade twelve; and

WHEREAS, the diversity of this group includes persons who have their origins in Spain, Mexico, Central and South America, and Caribbean Islands where Spanish is the primary language; and

WHEREAS, since the inception of European contact with our continent, Hispanics have always been an integral part of this nation's early exploration and California's discovery and early settlement; and

WHEREAS, the impact of the Hispanic culture and traditions are manifested in our State's customs, traditions, and laws; and

WHEREAS, Hispanic Americans continue to make important contributions to our society in American government, business, agriculture, commerce, Armed Forces, education, the arts, science, and sports; and

WHEREAS, the History-Social Science Framework for California Public Schools, Kindergarten Through Grade Twelve, adopted by the State Board of Education in 2016, states that we want our students to develop respect for all persons as equals regardless of ethnicity, nationality, gender identity, sexual orientation, and beliefs; and

WHEREAS, the California State Board of Education recognized in its Multicultural Education Policy that each student needs an opportunity to understand the common humanity underlying all people;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the Governing Board of the Davis Joint Unified School District proclaims the month of September 15, 2018 – October 15, 2018 as Hispanic Heritage Month and encourages all educational communities to commemorate this occasion with appropriate instructional activities.

RESOLUTION NO. 9-19
NATIVE AMERICAN HERITAGE MONTH
NOVEMBER 2018

WHEREAS, this country was home to generations of native peoples long before the arrival of European explorers and each of these tribes had a unique and vibrant culture as well as a system of social order; and

WHEREAS, the European settlers were aided in their survival by the teachings of this country's first inhabitants; and

WHEREAS, the contributions of the Native Americans to this nation's government, history, and culture are as numerous and varied as the tribes themselves; and

WHEREAS, every tribe has celebrated heroes of its own in sports, the arts, film, literature, engineering, medicine, education, and environmental science; and

WHEREAS, the American culture has been greatly influenced by traditions of native peoples and their close relationship to the earth and all its inhabitants; and

WHEREAS, the Davis Joint Unified School District recognized in its Multicultural Education Guide that each student needs an opportunity to understand the common humanity underlying all people; and

WHEREAS, the History-Social Science Framework for California Public Schools, Kindergarten Through Grade Twelve, adopted by the State Board of Education in 2016, states that we want our students to develop respect for all persons as equals regardless of ethnicity, nationality, gender identity, sexual orientation, and beliefs; and

WHEREAS, educational leaders throughout the state are urged to involve themselves and their schools in a statewide focus on improvement in education about our American Indian Heritage and such leaders in Davis are encouraged to create ways in which the Davis community can participate in helping the Davis Joint Unified School District meet its goals;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Governing Board of the Davis Joint Unified School District proclaims the month of November 2018 as Native American Heritage Month and encourages all educational communities to commemorate this occasion with appropriate instructional activities.

ARTS EDUCATION MONTH
MARCH 2019

WHEREAS, March is proclaimed as Arts Education Month by the State Board of Education; and

WHEREAS, Arts Education, which includes dance, music, theater, and the visual arts, is an indispensable part of basic education for all students, kindergarten through grade twelve, to enhance their understanding of the world and to develop their full potential; and

WHEREAS, through well-planned instruction and activities in the arts, children develop initiative, creative ability, self-expression, self-reflection, critical thinking skills, discipline, a heightened appreciation of beauty and cross-cultural understanding; and

WHEREAS, the arts are collectively one of the most important repositories of culture, and experience in the arts fosters insights and abilities central to the experience of life; and

WHEREAS, many national and state professional arts education associations hold celebrations each March, encouraging student participation in the arts; and

WHEREAS, these celebrations give California schools a unique opportunity to focus on the value of the arts for all students, promote cross-cultural understanding, give recognition to the state's outstanding young artists, and enhance public support for the arts; and

WHEREAS, the Visual and Performing Arts Framework for California Public Schools, Kindergarten Through Grade Twelve, adopted by the California State Board of Education in 2004, states that education in the arts is "essential for all students" and calls upon the California public schools to "provide a balanced curriculum, with the arts as a part of the core for all students, kindergarten through grade twelve, no matter what the students' abilities, language capacities, or special needs happen to be";

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Davis Joint Unified School District does hereby recognize the month of March 2019, as Arts Education Month.

WOMEN'S HISTORY MONTH
MARCH 2019

WHEREAS, March is designated as Women's History Month; and

WHEREAS, women of every race and ethnic background have contributed and continue to contribute to our country's triumphs and accomplishments in countless ways; and

WHEREAS, women have played and continue to play critical roles in the economic, cultural, and social spheres of our nation's life by constituting a significant portion of the labor force working in and outside the home; and

WHEREAS, women have played a unique role throughout our history by providing the majority of the nation's volunteer labor force and have been particularly important in the establishment of early charitable, philanthropic, and cultural institutions in the country; and

WHEREAS, women of diverse backgrounds have served as leaders in the forefront of progressive social change, not only to secure their own right of suffrage and equal opportunity, but also to abolish slavery; promote fairness, equality and safety in the workplace; and advance the modern civil rights movement; and

WHEREAS, the role of women in history has been overlooked and undervalued in the past, though its significance is now emerging and assuming its rightful place as an important part of the body of American and world history; and

WHEREAS, California Education Code Section 51204.5 specifically calls for instruction in the social sciences to include the study of the role and contributions of both men and women to the economic, political and social development of California and the nation, with particular emphasis on portraying the role of men and women in contemporary society; and

WHEREAS, the History-Social Science Framework for California Public Schools, Kindergarten Through Grade Twelve, adopted by the State Board of Education in 2016, states that we want our students to develop respect for all persons as equals regardless of ethnicity, nationality, gender identity, sexual orientation, and beliefs;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, by the Davis Joint Unified School District that the month of March 2019, be designated as Women's History Month and urges commemoration of this occasion with appropriate activities and educational opportunities.

CESAR CHAVEZ DAY
MARCH 31, 2019

WHEREAS, César Estrada Chávez was a leader for civil rights, Latinos, farm workers, and labor; a community servant and social entrepreneur; a crusader for nonviolent social change; an environmentalist and consumer advocate; and

WHEREAS, César Chávez's dream was to create an organization to protect and serve farm workers, whose poverty and disenfranchisement he had shared. Chávez led the first successful farm workers union in American history, achieving dignity, respect, fair wages, medical coverage, pension benefits, and humane living conditions, as well as countless other rights and protections for hundreds of thousands of farm workers; and

WHEREAS, César Chávez's organization became, in 1966, the United Farm Workers of America, AFL-CIO, which shares, in common with all organized labor, the goals of dignity, respect, fair wages, medical coverage and pension protections for old age; and

WHEREAS, the life of César Chávez transcends any one cause or struggle. He was a unique and humble labor leader, and a great humanitarian and communicator who influences and inspired millions of Americans from many diverse walks of life to seek social justice and civil rights for the poor and disenfranchised in our society; and

WHEREAS, the Governing Board of the Davis Joint Unified School District recognizes the contributions and accomplishments of César Chávez.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the Governing Board of the Davis Joint Unified School District proclaims March 31, 2019 as Cesar Chavez day and encourages all educational communities to commemorate this occasion with appropriate observances to remember Cesar Chavez as a symbol of hope and justice to all persons.

RESOLUTION NO. 16-19
WEEK OF THE PUBLIC SCHOOL ADMINISTRATOR
OCTOBER 14-20, 2018

WHEREAS, approximately 15,000 certificated and classified school administrators are employed in the public schools of the State of California, and nearly 60 percent of these administrators are principals and vice principals who provide direct support for the educational programs at school sites; and,

WHEREAS, the California State Board of Education recognizes that research has demonstrated conclusively that a key attribute of effective schools is the competent leadership of principals; and

WHEREAS, other certificated and classified administrators provide leadership and support for the educational program by developing and implementing the curriculum; selecting textbooks and other instructional resources; recruiting, training, and evaluating certificated and classified staff; managing the budget and monitoring cost controls; implementing school board policies and complying with federal, state, and local laws; planning and maintaining school facilities; and providing transportation, nutrition, and social service programs to pupils and their families; and

WHEREAS, efficient and effective administration at all levels works to enhance curriculum and instruction--good administration enables good teaching; and

WHEREAS, public school administration in California has become increasingly efficient and effective, with fewer administrators managing more schools with more pupils than at any other time in the past; and

WHEREAS, local administrative teams include confidential employees who perform and assist in the performance of many critical functions; and

WHEREAS, school administrators and confidential employees ensure that effective and innovative classroom instruction is promoted in every area of the state; and

WHEREAS, the State Board of Education's mission is "to create strong, effective schools that provide a wholesome learning environment through incentives that cause a high standard of student accomplishment as measured by a valid, reliable accountability system," and effective regional, district, and site administration of the public schools is critical to that mission's realization;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Governing Board of the Davis Joint Unified School District joins the other segments of the education community in California in proclaiming October 14-20, 2018, as Week of the Public School Administrator, in recognition of the many outstanding contributions and services provided by administrative teams in our public schools.

ASIAN PACIFIC HERITAGE MONTH
MAY 2019

WHEREAS, May is designated as Asian Pacific Heritage Month; and

WHEREAS, the State of California is home to more than 600,000 students of Asian and Pacific Islander descent, kindergarten through grade twelve; and

WHEREAS, these students reflect the great diversity of culture and heritage of the many countries of Asia and the Pacific Islands; and

WHEREAS, despite the hardships and barriers of the past, the people of Asia and the Pacific Islands who came to this country and their descendants have made substantial contributions to California's economic growth and development and have woven clear, distinct threads into the state's social fabric; and

WHEREAS, the California State Board of Education recognizes in its Policy Statement on Multicultural Education that each student needs an opportunity to understand the common humanity underlying all people; to develop pride in his or her own identity and heritage; and to understand, respect, and accept the identity and heritage of others; and

WHEREAS, the History-Social Science Framework for California Public Schools, Kindergarten Through Grade Twelve, adopted by the State Board of Education in 2016, states that we want our students to develop respect for all persons as equals regardless of ethnicity, nationality, gender identity, sexual orientation, and beliefs; and

WHEREAS, Asian Pacific Heritage Month is celebrated annually at the local, state, and national levels;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED by the Davis Joint Unified School District that the month of May 2017, be designated as Asian Pacific Heritage Month and encourages all educational communities to commemorate this occasion with appropriate instructional activities.

FRED T. KOREMATSU
JANUARY 30, 2019

WHEREAS, the battle for civil liberties has been championed by ordinary Americans who have had the courage to stand up and fight for their basic Constitutional rights; and

WHEREAS, Fred T. Korematsu was one of these individuals, who refused to comply with Civilian Exclusion Order 34, based on the federal Executive Order 9066, which imposed strict curfew regulations and required 120,000 Japanese Americans to leave their homes to be incarcerated in American concentration camps during World War II; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Korematsu was arrested and convicted, but fought back because he believed the conviction went against the basic freedoms guaranteed to him by the U.S. Constitution, and

WHEREAS, Mr. Korematsu's conviction was ultimately overturned in 1984; a decision that influenced the US government's passage of the Civil Liberties Act of 1988, which recognized that a grave injustice was done by forced relocation and incarceration of civilian Americans because of wartime prejudice; and

WHEREAS, current California law designates a number of days as having special significance, when public schools are encouraged to observe and conduct suitable commemorative exercises as specified; and

WHEREAS, the History-Social Science Framework for California Public Schools, Kindergarten Through Grade Twelve, adopted by the State Board of Education in 2016, states that we want our students to develop respect for all persons as equals regardless of ethnicity, nationality, gender identity, sexual orientation, and beliefs; and

WHEREAS, the California Assembly and State Senate passed AB 1775, commemorating January 30th as Fred Korematsu Day of Civil Liberties and the Constitution - the first day named after an Asian American in US history, without opposition and Governor Arnold Schwarzenegger signed this bill into law on September 23, 2010: 1.1-C

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Governing Board of the Davis Joint Unified School District encourages all schools and teachers to observe January 30, 2019, as Fred T. RESOLUTION NO. 22-19
FARM TO SCHOOL MONTH
OCTOBER 2018

WHEREAS, Davis Farm to School holds, at its highest goal, that every child receive nutritious food each day, with the additional education component of how that food nourishes her/his body,

WHEREAS, the Davis Farm to School program encompasses all aspects of food production from the school gardens that children plant, tend, harvest and consume, to the farm fresh food they are served in school meals from our region's farmers, and culminating in recycling and composting,

WHEREAS, as our society becomes increasingly aware of the importance of good childhood eating habits and perspectives about food, Farm to School enables all children to have healthy nutritious choices of foods, as well as a healthy informed perspective about how food is grown, processed and consumed,

WHEREAS, despite the wealth of our country, as a society we must address the lack of healthy, nutritious, affordable food, making it difficult to move fresh local food to those children and families who need it,

WHEREAS, Davis Farm to School programs increase awareness of our agricultural heritage in Yolo County through school gardens and recycling/composting programs, sourcing foods from our local farms and farm visits, including expansion of the current 2nd grade farm experience to 5th grade where students learn to harvest food and provide it to the needy and economically challenged families,

WHEREAS, the Davis RISE program within Farm to School has reduced solid waste across the district schools by 50%, with an additional savings at the elementary sites through piloting the ALL Compost Business pilot with cooperation with the City of Davis and DJUSD staff, students, and parents; not only teaching young children how to safeguard their environment, but also savings thousands of dollars for the school district,

WHEREAS, Davis Farm to School programs develop new relationships and connections within our business, university and school communities that benefit the next generation,

WHEREAS, October is national Farm to School Month, the local Farm to School successes are best highlighted at this time,

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Davis Joint Unified School District will continue to sustain and expand the Farm to School initiatives, goals and vision to include all schools and all students.
